Terrorist's Act Hurts 12 GIs In Viet

Boy Flips Grenade Into Truck In 4th Day Of Terrorism

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — A teenage terrorist tossed a grenade into a truckload of U.S. soldiers in Saigon today, injuring 12 GIs.

It was Saigon's fourth straight day of terrorism marking the fifth anniversary Monday of the Viet Cong's National Liberation Front.

The would-be assassin, about 15 or 16, fled in the confusion on the busy street. Only one of the Americans was seriously injured.

In North Viet Nam, Communist MIGs took to the air — but cautiously — during another day of heavy bombardment.

American pilots reported sighting seven Soviet-built MIGs which kept a discreet distance while apparently trailing the U.S. jets. An Air Force spokesman said the American planes were too short on fuel to take on the Communist jets.

Two U.S. planes were lost in other operations.

A Navy jet returning from a mission over North Viet Nam crashed into the ramp of the flight deck of the carrier Kitty Hawk and plunged into the sea. The pilot was presumed dead.

Enemy ground fire apparently nailed an Air Force F5 Freedom fighter jet which crashed on an attack mission 15 miles from Saigon. An Army helicopter picked up the injured pilot but he died later.

In the ground war, a Viet Cong battalion badly mauled a government company 22 miles northwest of the capital, inflicting heavy casualties. The Reds fled before a relief column came to the scene.

The appearance of the MIGs came after U.S. officials had expressed some concern about probes of American air preparedness by Communist jets. The Air Force did not specify the nationality of the MIGs sighted over North Viet Nam.

U.S. planes dropped 73 tons of bombs on the Communist North. Spokesmen said they hit bridges, roads and buildings in the Dien Bien Phu area, near the Laotian border, and the Vinh sector, 170 miles south of Hanoi. No strikes were reported against the Hanoi-Haiphong industrial complex, which was raided Wednesday with an attack on a key power station outside Haiphong, the country's major port.

In the South, American aircraft aimed at Viet Cong river shipping in the Mekong River Delta south of Saigon. Pilots claimed 24 sampans were sunk, seven of them motorized.

Appeal Action Nearing End

Phillis To Testify Today At Hearing In Columbus

By JAMES HUCKA
Review Staff Writer

COLUMBUS — Russell Phillis, discharged as superintendent of the Columbiana County Home in October for alleged improper performance of duties, was slated to testify this afternoon before the Ohio Board of Personnel Review.

Phillis is expected to answer charges by two Columbiana County commissioners that he failed to follow regulations set down by them, that he was intoxicated while on duty and that he violated other rules of conduct.

THE HEARING on his appeal against the Oct. 5 dismissal is expected to end today, but the board may not hand down a decision for a week or more.

County Prosecutor J. Warren Bettis completed his case against Phillis yesterday afternoon, and Atty. G. William Brokaw asked for dismissal of the charges against the ex-superintendent.

The board threw out only one charge — that he failed to provide adequate food and clothing for home residents — and reserved a decision on four others.

The charges on which the board delayed a ruling include: That Phillis authorized and permitted a matron to perform personal services for himself and his wife.

That he authorized and permitted employees to reside free at the home and receive meals there.

That he retained a housekeeper to perform personal services.

That he, without the consent of the commissioners, converted to his own use produce and meat which was the property of the home.

SEVEN witnesses appeared on behalf of Phillis yesterday afternoon before the hearing adjourned at 5:30.

They included Paul Yarwood of Lisbon R.D. 4, general maintenance man at the home; Mrs. Clara Fisher of Kensington R.D. a cook at the home; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Pribble of Lisbon R.D., both laundry workers at the home; William Park of Salem, an employee of a plumbing concern, and Frank Murray of Lisbon R.D. 4, owner of a farm adjacent to the home.

All testified Phillis had conducted his duties in a proper manner and declared the charges were unfounded.

Only one told of seeing Phillis drink intoxicants — Yarwood, who said the incident was at a private party. None indicated they had ever seen the former superintendent drunk.

Murray, asked if he had noted any changes in the home after Phillis began his duties in 1958, said there had been "remarkable" changes for the better.

The examination of the witnesses was conducted by Brokaw and Atty. Howard Cole, co-defense counsel.

Bettis and Atty. James P. Primm, assistant prosecutor, handled the cross-examination. The last four or five witnesses to be called by the defense will bring to about 30 the number involved in the case on both sides.

The hearing began with a one-day session Dec. 8 and resumed yesterday before Earl Allison, chairman of the board, and John P. Cook.

R. Max Gard, Democrat commissioner, was on the stand for a considerable time yesterday afternoon.

He charged Phillis had violated the rules established by the commissioners in March and ne-

Relief Teams, Supplies Rushed

2,000 In East Pakistan Reported Dead In Cyclone

DACCA, East Pakistan (AP) — The Pakistani government rushed relief teams and supplies today to the cyclone-devastated coast of East Pakistan where many thousands were reported dead.

The Pakistani News Agency reported that 2,000 persons were killed but other reports said the death toll was much higher. The cyclone's twisting 100-mile-an-hour winds, followed by a 12-foot tidal wave and heavy rains, devastated crops and villages.

The governor of East Pakistan flew from Dacca to Chittagong to direct relief operations.

The cyclone started in the Bay of Bengal, which is formed by India, East Pakistan and Burma. The storm hit at Cox's Bazar, moved up the coast through Chittagong, about 200 miles east of Calcutta and then blew itself out as it moved northeast.

Naval units searched for survivors on the many small islands dotting the coast. Two hundred deep-sea fishermen were reported missing off Sonadia Island.

Persons reaching Chittagong from Cox's Bazar, 80 miles down the coast, said they saw scattered bodies. The news agency said the British ship Star Pink picked up five survivors in the Bay of Bengal Wednesday.

Details of the devastation on the islands were sketchy because communications were cut with the mainland port of Chittagong.

Hundreds were homeless, and 60 per cent of the houses were wrecked in Cox's Bazar, which has a population of about 6,000. The airfield was reported under a foot of water.

Fire Destroys Vacant House In East End

A two-story vacant dwelling on Pennsylvania Ave. East was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin early this morning.

Asst. Fire Chief Gerald Goodballet said neither the cause nor the point where the fire originated could be determined.

When the East End truck, the first of four to answer the alarm, arrived, the wood and block building was engulfed in flames and the second floor had collapsed into the first, the assistant chief said.

The six firemen on the East End, North Side and Central trucks remained at the scene for nearly three hours after firemen were advised of the blaze by the police department.

An unknown woman notified police of the fire.

The building is owned by Henry Roach of 439 Virginia Ave.

After Night Of Worry Gemini 7 Given 'Go' For Its Record Goal Of 14 Days In Space

Astronauts

Of Gemini 6 'Debriefed'

Leave Wasp, Board Navy Plane Headed For Bermuda, Cape

ABOARD USS WASP (AP) — Astronauts Walter M. Schirra Jr. and Thomas P. Stafford left the Wasp today en route to Bermuda and Cape Kennedy, Fla., for further medical studies and technical debriefing.

The Gemini 6 spacemen boarded separate Navy seaplanes in the same good spirits they showed Thursday when they stepped from the Gemini 6 to the carrier deck.

Both flew in the co-pilot seats of the aircraft. They were to land at Bermuda, then transfer to a larger plane for the flight to Cape Kennedy.

The Wasp was to move 155 miles during the day to a position 565 miles southwest of Bermuda for the Gemini 7 splashdown about 9 a.m. Saturday.

Schirra, a Navy captain, and Stafford, an Air Force major, radioed the Wasp Thursday while still bobbing in the Atlantic Ocean after splashdown. Permission to come aboard was quickly granted and they found a red carpet leading their way to the sick bay for preliminary medical examinations.

"Exactly what we had expected after one day," Dr. Bill Carpenter, National Aeronautics and Space Administration physician, reported, as Stafford lit his first cigar after the flight.

Each pilot telephoned his wife, giving a three-minute personal account of the historic flight and rendezvous.

2 Motorists Hospitalized After Wreck

Two Toronto area men were hospitalized and a Steubenville man was injured in a spectacular crash Thursday night on Route 213, near Knoxville, in which the Steubenville driver was cited for unsafe operation.

Lawrence N. Wallace, 61, of Toronto R.D. 2 was admitted to Ohio Valley Hospital, Steubenville, with fractured ribs, while William Wallace, 20, of the same address, was admitted with possible fractures of the shoulder and hip.

Robert L. Jackson Jr., 30, of Steubenville R.D. 1 was treated at the hospital for facial lacerations and cited.

Jackson was released by the Wintersville barracks of the State Highway Patrol on an unsafe operation charge. He will be given a hearing Tuesday before County Judge Augustus Evans in Toronto.

The patrol said Jackson was headed south on Route 213, half a mile south of Knoxville, at 10 p.m. and was traveling at a high rate of speed.

His car went off the right side of the road and Jackson lost control, the patrol said. His auto swerved left of center, went back across the right side of the road and then skidded broadside into the path of the northbound auto driven by the elder Wallace.

Boy And Girl Hurt By Cars In 2 Mishaps

Child's Foot Pinned Under Auto Wheel; Freed By Officer

An 11-year-old boy and a girl 10, were injured when struck by cars in separate mishaps two hours apart Thursday afternoon and evening in West End and the downtown area, police reported.

John Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. David E. Williams of 709 John St., was in "serious" condition today at City Hospital with injuries suffered at 4:24 p. m. when he dashed down a flight of steps and then ran into the path of an auto on Lisbon St. at Fairview St.

The boy suffered multiple abrasions of the face and head, contusions of the scalp and possible head and neck injuries.

Police said he was knocked six feet when he ran into the path of a 1955 sedan operated by William J. Averitt, 50, of Akron.

In the other mishap at 6:37 p. m. on Market St., about 50 feet south of 5th St., the right foot of Shirley Wright, 10, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wright of 106 W. 2nd St., was trapped under the right front wheel of a halted car.

New Date Due On Hearing In Midland Case

Weirton Man Fails To Appear After 'Misunderstanding'

Because of a "misunderstanding," David L. Graham, 25, of Weirton failed to appear this morning for arraignment before Justice of the Peace Paul McGeehan of Midland in conjunction with last Saturday night's attempted robbery which resulted in the death of Stanley D. Simcox of Chester.

Graham had been released on $2,500 bond from the Beaver County jail earlier this week.

McGeehan said there "was a misunderstanding when Graham was released and he failed to consult an attorney relative to this morning's scheduled hearing."

"A date will be set for a new hearing," McGeehan said.

Graham, who was with Simcox when the latter was wounded during a scuffle in an attempted robbery at the home of Walter Dardzinski of 2nd St., Midland, appeared voluntarily at police headquarters here after the shooting.

Meanwhile, Darrell Grimes, 67, of New Brighton R. D. 2, charged as an accessory before the fact in the robbery attempt,

Democrat Hasn't Fully Decided

Rep. Sweeney May Throw Hat In Governor's Ring

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Rep. Robert E. Sweeney tested Ohio's political waters and found the temperature favorable today for a strong Democratic plunge against Republican Gov. James A. Rhodes.

Sweeney, 41-year-old Ohio congressman-at-large, still has not decided whether to take that plunge. But he has stroked out a campaign chart striking at which many consider Rhodes' strongest point: Jobs and industrial development.

"Democrats are beginning to feel they can get the range on Jim Rhodes," said Sweeney, who feels the governor is "not only unbeatable but decidedly oversold."

Sweeney is still considering three political alternatives:

Governor, attorney general or congress. He said in an interview with The Associated Press he does not know when he will decide what race to enter—or whether to elect "my fourth choice, retirement."

Some reports count Sweeney, a 156,000-vote victor in 1964 over Republican U. S. Rep. Oliver Bolton, the strongest candidate the Democrats could offer against Rhodes. Sweeney's favorite (assuming he doesn't run) is state Sen. Frank King of Toledo.

Whether Sweeney enters the primary for governor or not, he offers campaign issues to challenge Rhodes.

Power Fuel Reported In Good Order

Splash In Atlantic Scheduled Saturday Morning At 9:05

SPACE CENTER, Houston, Tex. (AP)—The Gemini 7 pilots — assured that the power-producing fuel cells of their space ship would not fail them—hurled confidently onward today to the big goal of 14 days in space.

After a night of worry over the power system, flight directors determined that it would hold up, and gave the world space endurance champions Frank Borman and James Lovell a "go" for the full distance of 5,149,400 miles.

This would bring them to a landing in the Atlantic Ocean at 9:05 a.m. (EST) Saturday, in the same area where spacemen Walter Schirra and Thomas Stafford brought the Gemini 6 down Thursday near the waiting aircraft carrier Wasp.

"There's no reason," astronaut Elliot See told Borman and Lovell in a statement this morning, "that we shouldn't go straight on downhill from now on."

Gemini 7 entered its 193rd orbit at 10:25 a.m. (EST).

The Gemini 7 astronauts were so sure of themselves that they made a bet with Schirra and Stafford during their historic rendezvous in space Wednesday that they would make a more accurate landing, Gemini 6 missed the aircraft carrier Wasp by less than 15 miles.

The stakes were not disclosed, but Borman asked today for accurate figures on the Gemini 6

Bus Strike Continues, Mediator Aid Weighed

Some 60 drivers and mechanics of the Beaver Valley Motor Coach Co. remained on strike today, leaving some 3,600 bus users in Beaver Valley and East Liverpool areas without regular transportation for the second day.

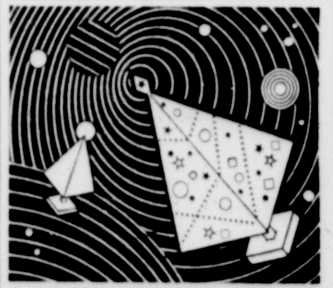

No further talks have been scheduled by the firm and officials of Amalgamated Street and Railroad Employees Local 1086.

One spokesman said a federal mediator may be summoned to help settle the dispute over provisions of a new contract.

Expense List Deadline Due

The County Election Board today issued a final reminder that the deadline falls at 4 this afternoon for the sworn expense statements required of all candidates who sought office at the general election Nov. 2.

More area candidates have filed the reports, including Mayor William Daugherty of Wellsville, Democrat, who said he spent $344.66 in his successful bid for a new term.

Councilman Donald E. Smith, Democrat, who lost a bid for a new term, said his expenses totaled $20.60.

The Election Board emphasized the reports are required by state law from all candidates, whether or not they were successful, as well as from committees which supported or opposed any candidate or issue.

All except two East Liverpool candidates have filed and both are non-winners, the board said. Approximately three officials-elect in other communities have failed to submit the reports.

The board emphasized that it is not permitted to issue certificates of election to successful candidates who do not file the statements. Without the certificate, the official-elect cannot qualify to serve.

Another penalty in the law covers winners as well as non-winners. Persons who fail to file the expense reports on time are barred from seeking public office again for five years.

The statements are required under the so-called "corrupt practices act," which puts a ceiling on campaign spending.

The board said it has issued repeated reminders to all the candidates and committees involved.

Early Pay Day Slated For Municipal Staff

Auditor Lawrence Zollinger and Treasurer Bert A. Dawson said today municipal employees will receive their last pay checks of the year five days earlier than usual so that the books can be closed out on 1965 business.

Checks will be issued Dec. 31 at 2 p. m., although the rest of the offices at City Hall will be closed that day, the officials said. The pay, covering the last half of December, would not be disbursed ordinarily until Jan. 5. The next subsequent pay day will fall on Jan. 20, covering the first half of January.

Dawson and Zollinger reminded that checks also will be issued to city employees and officials next Monday, covering the first half of December.

Mrs. Carpenter said he will be replaced, but the name of the new chef was not announced.

20 On St. John's Faculty Fired In Past Two Days

NEW YORK (AP) — The number of faculty members fired by St. John's University in the past two days has risen to more than 20, a faculty spokesman said today.

The dismissals by the nation's largest Roman Catholic university came after 10 months of feuding between faculty and administration over academic freedom.

Among those dismissed was Msgr. John Clancy, a former member of the Vatican Secretariat who was secretary to Pope Paul VI when the Pope was a cardinal.

Another was the Rev. Peter O'Reilly, head of the St. John's chapter of the AFL-CIO United Federation of College Teachers, which has often been the spokesman for faculty members demanding a greater voice in university administration.

"It's absurd," said Father O'Reilly, who received his notice of dismissal Thursday night. "I'm still getting word of other dismissals. Right now there are more than 20."

Father O'Reilly said his union was "giving very serious consideration" to calling a strike at St. John's when classes resume Jan. 3. The university closed Wednesday — two days earlier than scheduled — for Christmas vacation.

The Very Rev. Joseph T. Cahill, president of the university, said the closing was in answer to a request for extra holidays by Stefanos Cardinal Sidarous, Coptic patriarch of Alexandria, who received an honorary degree Tuesday night.

Father Cahill said of the firings:

"The board of trustees has given from 6 to 18 months' notice to certain members of the faculty that their contracts will not be renewed."

"In accordance with standard university practice, neither the reasons for the action nor the identities of the persons involved will be discussed publicly," he said.

The identities were made public, however, by faculty members, including some of those dismissed. Most attacked the university for what Father O'Reilly called "failure to enter the 20th century and to keep up with the new ecumenical spirit in the Church."

Msgr. Clancy, the author of a biography of Pope Paul, declined to discuss the firings "until I have time to think this thing through."

Father O'Reilly said virtually all the fired teachers were members of his union, which claims 71 members at St. John's. The university, with campuses in Queens and Brooklyn, has about 600 teachers and 12,500 students.

South Euclid's Mayor Proposes County Assembly

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mayor George J. Urban of South Euclid suggests that the Cuyahoga County government be overhauled to include a provision for a county legislature to deal with areawide problems.

Urban made the suggestion Thursday night in his inaugural speech as president of the Cuyahoga County Mayors and City Managers Association made up of the 58 mayors and three city managers in the county.

He called for countywide or regional organizations to provide:

—A program to curb air and water pollution.

—A broader base for operation of Cleveland's port facilities.

—Financing of drainage, sewerage and sewage treatment facilities.

Labor Government Beats Censure Move

LONDON (AP) — Britain's Labor government mustered a one-vote majority in Parliament Thursday night to defeat another censure move by the Conservative party.

With Prime Minister Harold Wilson absent in the United States, the Tories introduced a motion to reject a government bill to abolish the territorial army, the equivalent of the U.S. National Guard.

The motion in the House of Commons was rejected 292-291. Had the motion carried, Wilson might have had to call a national election.

The Laborites have a nominal Commons majority of two votes over the combined opposition.

Phillis

ver had filed reports on inventories, illnesses of residents or other conditions as requested.

Freeman Strabley, hired by commissioners last January as an efficiency expert, told the review board that Phillis openly resented his visits to the home and at one time used obscene language and ordered him off the place.

PHILLIS' lawyers questioned Gard as to why Strabley was hired in the new position last January and whether it was the sole purpose of the move to investigate the county home "and to get Russ."

Gard denied this was the case and asserted the 73-year-old Strabley was employed to investigate the County Home "and everywhere else the county spends money."

Gard conceded under cross-examination that farm income of the home has increased within the last few years, but added that "expenses have, too."

PHILLIS, a tall, light-haired man, has sat quietly and calmly at the long table before the board's bench, occasionally smoking a cigarette.

With him are Cole and Brokaw. Sitting at the same long table are Gard, Bettis and Primm.

Commissioner Frank Wilson of Wellsville, Democrat, and Commissioner James Boyd of St. Clair Ave. Ext., Republican, sit in the spectator area.

Witnesses are not permitted in the hearing room and are summoned from the halls.

Hancock Revises Holiday Closings For Courthouse

A revised schedule for the closing of Hancock County Courthouse offices over the Christmas holiday was announced during the meeting of the County Commissioners Thursday.

The Courthouse will be closed all day Friday before Christmas and the Monday following. The previous schedule had called for a Thursday noon closing, with the offices to be open on the following Monday.

Frank P. Gaffney of Cemetery Lane near New Cumberland appeared at the meeting to request the court to contact Walter Batalo of the West Virginia Road Commission relative to flooding of his property because of recent construction on the opposite side of the roadway. The commissioners agreed to investigate the matter.

Approval was granted for the payment of monthly bills of the Hancock County Children's Home.

A special meeting was called for Monday at 10 a. m. to consider the matter of disposal of the 1964 model sheriff's cruiser. The proposed acquisition of a photocopy machine for use by all offices of the courthouse also will be discussed.

True Meaning Of Christmas

Each December, this newspaper gets letters from readers who want to tell about the "true meaning of Christmas."

All newspapers get these letters, we suppose. And we suppose they must be as puzzled as we are by readers who seem to believe the "true meaning of Christmas" has been lost sight of in the sixth decade of the 20th century. The evidence all points in the other direction.

Christmas is gaining significance every year. Wherever you look, the celebration of Christmas is built on the central theme of kindness and good will.

Never have there been as many Christians as there are now.

Never have the precepts of Christianity been honored so highly.

The fact they also are honored in practice by human beings who do not subscribe to the theology of any of the Christian denominations is a massive tribute to Christian love.

Even the Japanese now celebrate the holiday of Christmas, though Japan is not a Christian nation.

Instead of discussing the "true meaning of Christmas" as if it were an abstract theory, all who are seeking its meaning would do better to seek it among their fellow human beings. They should observe innumerable acts of kindness performed for shut-ins, wards of society, the aged, the crippled.

They should look into the hearts of families whose members have been preoccupied for days with thoughts of kindness and consideration for one another.

They should be mindful that Christmas is the only day that millions of people like so well they wish it could be repeated every day of the year.

It marks the closest approach to the triumph of love over hate, of faith over doubt, of peace over strife.

Its true meaning is in every individual's heart, not in any creed, or doctrine.

Christmas has become a festival of kindness — the day when most of us try to bring happiness to others.

Sufficient unto it is the goodness thereof.

Professionalism

W. Somerset Maugham has died at the age of 97, marking an anticlimax to perhaps the most brilliant and certainly one of the most envied professional writing careers of the century.

Professionalism was the key to his character and work. He wrote novels to be sold and read. Everything that came to his attention was grist to his writing mill, from "Of Human Bondage," which critics believed was autobiographical—the kind of personal purge that sometimes clears the way for a writing career—to his brittle novels of manners.

He insisted he had lived past his time and was resentful of the physical deterioration that marred the vitality of his successful life. His passing is one more blurred milestone in a century whirling into the last 33 years of its duration—a century in which millions enjoyed the polished writing of novels by W. Somerset Maugham. Dead at the age of 97? There must be a mistake.

The Shakiest Assumption

The space program is having a busy and costly sequence of events. The space rendezvous success cost millions. No one is grumbling.

It hardly can be questioned that Spaniards grumbled about the million marverdis risked by King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella of Spain on the dreamer who was to become famous as Christopher Columbus.

Explorers of the unknown always have been a source of grumbling by other people who would have liked to get their hands on the money instead. The very fact they were explorers always put them in deep disfavor with people who shied away from probing into the unknown, fearful of what they might find there.

Besides, there always was the claim that if the money were not being piddled away on dreamers who did not know what they were doing and might get into serious trouble it could be spent on something worthwhile, like buying food for the poor, building a new city hall, or erecting another religious edifice.

This is without question the shakiest of all assumptions about money. It assumes that all funds not spent on something of a special nature will be diverted automatically into something of a routine nature.

Could It Be That Illogical?

State Sen. Robert E. Stockdale of Kent thinks Ohio has lost that $300 million atom smasher because a couple of Democratic congressmen played dog in the manger.

Instead of backing the drive to have the atom smasher located at the Ravenna Arsenal site, says Sen. Stockdale, U.S. Reps. Michael J. Kirwan of Youngstown and Robert E. Sweeney of Cleveland pulled the string on this most favored Ohio site. Rep. Sweeney said he preferred a Pike County site and Rep. Kirwan said he preferred any other site, just as long as the site wasn't in Northeastern Ohio.

Sen. Stockdale reasons that the brilliant and supposedly objective people responsible for choosing the site will be so distressed by the Kirwan-Sweeney grumbles they will take Northeastern Ohio off their list.

It is beyond belief that the choice of a site for an installation of this magnitude will be made on any basis but the merit of the site itself.

If the Ravenna Arsenal site is not the best from the standpoint of topography, communication, transportation, living conditions for personnel, climate, housing, proximity to colleges and universities, cultural level, labor supply, accessibility of material, economic compatibility and friendliness of the population, it most assuredly should not be chosen.

But if any other site less desirable is chosen, it most assuredly should not have been chosen, least of all because a couple of Democratic congressmen played dog in the manger.

By Truman Twill

We are planning to arrive at your pad 15 minutes before dark on Christmas Eve. I can see all right after dark, but I am not too certain about the other people I will encounter on the road.

Do not make any special preparations for us. Just have a good hot meal, a fireplace fire, a little something to dissolve the chill and induce sleepiness and turn up the electric blanket to medium warm. Don't go to any trouble, see. Don't treat us like company. Treat us like royalty.

Be kind to us. Be kind to everybody. That's what Dec. 25 is all about. Isn't it wonderful?

'Oldest Houses'

An expedition sponsored by the National Geographic Society and Harvard University's Peabody Museum has discovered the oldest houses known anywhere in the Americas.

The remains of two circular huts built by paleo-Indian people some 10,000 years ago were uncovered at Hell Gap near Guernsey, Wyoming. The site has been under excavation the last five years.

"The houses at Hell Gap are the earliest known in the Western Hemisphere," said Prof. J. O. Brew, director of the museum and leader of the expedition. "The two structures consist of overlapping circles of postholes that were formed by the butts of upright branches used to make the shelter. These postholes were evenly distributed about every two feet in a symmetrical ring about six and one-half feet in diameter.

"The branches were probably bent and tied in the middle and then covered with hides or skins, much like a modern Apache wickiup, a type of Indian hut used in the West. The floors of the structures contained bones of bison and other animals that the people had killed and a number of fine examples of flint tools."

Prohibition Will Return, WCTU Says

By Hugh Hough

CHICAGO

Thanks to the federal government, the battle to bring back prohibition now is being directed from headquarters in the backyard of a National Historic Landmark.

The landmark, designated as such last month by the National Park Service, is the rambling frame home of 19th-century liquor fighter and suffragette Frances E. Willard.

Located on the grounds at the rear of the 100-year-old Willard home in the Chicago suburb of Evanston is a three-story brick structure. It serves as the national headquarters for the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Evanston is the WCTU's favorite kind of town—dry, but that poses no major problem for its drinking residents. Very-wet Chicago sprawls south of the Evanston border.

MISS WILLARD, as a founder of the WCTU in 1874 and as president from 1879 until her death in 1898, played a leading role in the movement that ultimately brought prohibition to this country.

Today, the woman who heads the WCTU, Mrs. Fred J. Tooze, says the goal of the organization hasn't changed since Miss Willard's time.

"We have never swerved an inch," says Mrs. Tooze. "We still are working for prohibition. Our goals are total abstinence for individuals and abolition of the liquor traffic in community, state and nation."

But as a realist, Mrs. Tooze adds, "We realize the country is not ready for prohibition today. But ultimately it will come."

Meanwhile, Mrs. Tooze is thankful for any gains her organization can make.

One such gain, she believes, is the federal citation of the Willard home as a landmark because of its "exceptional value in commemorating or illustrating the history of the United States."

"Such recognition from the U. S. government is fine publicity for the movement," she asserts.

MRS. TOOZE professes to see "a turning of the tide in our favor." For example, "I think the public is beginning to be aroused by highway deaths, about 50 per cent of which are connected with alcohol," she says.

She also takes comfort in reports that office Christmas parties are on the wane. And she detects growing public alarm over the incidence of alcohol-connected mental illness. But she was reluctant to talk about the dry vs. wet trend in local elections. A check with Robert W. Coyne, president of the Distilled Spirits Institute, Washington D.C., indicated why.

He estimated that 88 per cent of the U. S. population now lives in areas where liquor sales are legal. As recently as 1958 that figure stood at 83.7 per cent.

Biggest recent victory for the wets was the 1959 election in Oklahoma which ended the dry status that had persisted there since the state was admitted to the Union in 1907. Mississippi is now the only state that even is technically dry.

Nor can Mrs. Tooze derive much comfort from Commerce Department figures on U. S. consumption of alcoholic beverages.

For 1964, those figures show an average per capita consumption of 1.28 gallons of distilled spirits, 15.74 gallons of malt liquors and .96 gallons of wine. (The corresponding figures for 1935 — the second full year of legal drinking following prohibition — were .70 gallons of distilled spirits, 10.45 gallons of malt liquors and .30 gallons of wine.)

THE FIGURES are reached by dividing the total population, including children of all ages, into the total gallons consumed. Actual adult consumption thus would be much higher. Coyne estimates 75 per cent of drinking-age Americans touch the stuff at least occasionally.

If these figures are staggering to Mrs. Tooze, she also finds in the evidence that the saturation point is nearing — the point that will lead back to prohibition.

She believes such a reaction will begin "when nearly every family in this nation has been touched directly or indirectly by drinking. Now that time is fast approaching."

To Mrs. Tooze the prohibition era was "one of the best eras this nation ever has experienced. The saloons were gone; the children had a chance to go to high school and college, homes were being purchased; sales of life insurance soared and savings accounts grew."

The interviewer reminded Mrs. Tooze that about 300 persons were killed in Chicago gang wars in 1926 and 1927 alone as Al Capone and his henchmen battled for the city's illicit liquor traffic, and that Chicago is still trying to live down its prohibition era reputation for wickedness.

Her reply, accompanied by a hump of her desk, was simple: "It's more lawless today than it was during prohibition."

MRS. TOOZE, a native of Trumansburg, N. Y., was literally born into the temperance movement. Her father was a Baptist minister. Her mother, an active WCTU worker, tied a white ribbon on the daughter's wrist before she was six. The little girl gladly took the white-ribbon pledge of abstinence and has kept it to this day. As the ninth president of the WCTU in its 91-year history, Mrs. Tooze heads a non-sectarian organization that has a membership of some 250,000 in this country. She has set a goal of 1 million members and a $1 million anti-liquor fund by 1974, the 100th anniversary year.

Adult members agree to pay at least $1 a year in dues, although "Rock of Ages" membership is possible by contributing "a penny a day and a prayer." Members sign this pledge: "I hereby solemnly promise, God helping me, to abstain from all distilled, fermented and malt liquors, including wine, beer and cider, and to employ all proper methods to discourage the use of and traffic in the same."

The WCTU also actively recruits youth to its white banner and indoctrinates them in the evils of alcohol. The Loyal Temperance Legion spans the years 6-to-12 and the Youth Temperance Council the 12-to-20 age group.

To temperance leader Mrs. Tooze, the approaching Christmas season is in many ways the most melancholy of the year.

She sees in gift-liquor ads and spiritous holiday parties "a burlesque of the true meaning of Christmas."

Europe Alerted

By David Lawrence

U.S. Speaks Bluntly On Asia

The most significant development in world affairs today is the appeal that the United States has made to other nations for help in fighting the Viet Nam War.

Two members of President Johnson's cabinet — the secretary of state and the secretary of defense — have presented to the Council of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization the blunt facts about the big burden the United States is carrying virtually alone.

The NATO Treaty specifies that member states will come to the aid of each other if attacked by any European power but Messrs. Rusk and McNamara pointed out that the conquest of Asia by Communist regimes could be the forerunner of wars to take over Europe as well as Latin America.

This is the first time that spokesmen for the United States have laid the Viet Nam case on the line. Secretary McNamara analyzed the meaning of Red China's threat in Asia. He said the Peking regime will soon have nuclear material to make not only bombs for aircraft but missile warheads. He mentioned that the Chinese Communists have a standing army of 2.3 million men and huge reserves as well as a large air force, with planes supplied by the Soviet government.

The secretary declared that Red China already has targeted Thailand for future attack.

THESE REALISTIC statements were made to convince the NATO members that a world situation confronts them which transcends in importance their own preoccupation with Europe. For, while Mr. McNamara didn't say so he implied that, if the United States gets tied up in Asia, it might be difficult for this country to furnish all the military aid necessary should an attack by Communists develop inside Europe.

Up to now, though there has been some token aid given in the Viet Nam war by other countries, the United States has borne almost the entire burden. The mission of Secretaries Rusk and McNamara was designed to warn NATO that the members had better start thinking of ways to strengthen the alliance rather than talking about ways of weakening or decentralizing the whole defense mechanism.

Unfortunately, it's not fully realized in the free countries of Europe that the people of the United States are growing a bit disillusioned about the attitude heretofore taken by its allies toward rendering help in the Viet Nam War. Europe's aloofness could result in the formation of a public opinion in this country favoring withdrawal of American forces from Europe and transferring the full responsibility for defending that continent to the European members of NATO.

A DISINTEGRATION of the whole situation in Southeast Asia, however, is bound to encourage the Communist imperialists in both Peking and Moscow. This is why the mission of Secretaries Rusk and McNamara can hardly be brushed aside as a perfunctory step in diplomacy.

The United States cannot police the world alone, and there is no other way to do it except by an alliance of the free countries of Europe, bolstered by their big armies willing to go to Asia to thwart the Communists at the inception of their march rather than to await their invasion of Western Europe.

So the world is confronted today with a growing crisis and it will not be overcome by appeasement or "peace at any price" negotiations. President Johnson patiently has pushed a policy that favors a peace conference but not in any sense a withdrawal or demobilization as long as the Viet Nam people are threatened with conquest by the Red Chinese.

SECRETARY RUSK, in requesting co-operation from NATO members, said he would welcome different forms of aid at the start but basically the United States wants large manpower contributions. It's obvious that currently American troops are making the supreme sacrifices virtually unsupported by any major power in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization or anywhere else.

That's why the addresses of the two Cabinet secretaries, McNamara and Rusk, at the NATO meeting in Paris can be a turning point in the whole Asian situation. Both Peking and Moscow are doubtless watching closely to see which way the wind is going to blow.

Injunctive Plan Vote Set Today In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG (AP) — A proposal to give the State Human Relations Commission injunctive powers was ready for a vote in the Senate today because of the personal intercession of Gov. Scranton with the Republican caucus.

Apparently rebuffed a day earlier by the Republican majority, the governor Thursday went before the 28-member GOP caucus to ask support for the bill allowing injunctions to prevent the sale of property involved in discrimination complaints.

ON A reported vote of 14-11, with three members not voting, the GOP caucus agreed to the provision, but cut the proposed life of such injunctions from 90 to 30 days.

Because a rule adopted by the caucus Wednesday that it will not consider any more House bills this year, the provision was written into another bill already on the floor.

Senate majority leader Stanley G. Stroup said the rule kills for this year two other civil rights bills. One would grant the Human Relations Commission subpoena power — a provision which was not supported by Scranton — and another would bring agricultural workers under fair employment provisions.

However, the full Senate approved 38-4 a bill that would reduce from 12 to 6 the number of workers an employer must have to be covered by the fair employment provision. The bill went back to the House for agreement on a language change.

THE HIGHLIGHTS Thursday: Gravy train — The Senate backed off from its amendments to a bill to write into law Gov. Scranton's executive order ending the patronage system of directing commissions on state-purchased insurance to politically favored brokers. The measure now goes to the governor for his signature.

Point system — A proposed point system for suspending and revoking drivers' licenses with emphasis on retraining was approved by the Senate 33-8. The measure goes back to the House for agreement on an amendment to raise speed limits for trucks and buses.

Milk control — The Senate approved on a vote of 29-10 the last bill in a package to strengthen milk price controls and sent it to the governor. It will require dealers who purchase milk out of state to pay to the Milk Control Commission the difference between the purchase price and the price fixed by the state agency.

State police — A special House committee investigating the state police adjourned public hearings until the first of the year after denying Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alessandrini an opportunity to make a statement asking for immediate consideration of a proposal to add 300 men to the police force.

Discharge resolutions — The Senate defeated without debate 21 resolutions offered by minority Democrats to discharge from Republican-controlled committees a number of labor bills, including unemployment compensation revisions.

Capital improvements — The House unanimously approved a bill to finance capital improvements costing less than $300,000 out of current revenues. But under the Senate's new rule it must be considered dead.

School subsidies — Legislative leaders reached agreement that apparently clears the way for final passage of the administration's proposed new school subsidy payment formula. It was amended to reduce the poverty factor from $100 to $90 per needy student and the density factor option was out from $35 to $30 per student.

$7,000 Loss Reported In Negley Home Fire

NEGLEY — The loss in a blaze at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Dickey in the west part of the village early Thursday has been estimated at $7,000 by Fire Chief Don Mahon.

The fire apparently started in the kitchen as a result of overloaded or defective wiring. No one was injured, Mahon said. The two-story frame structure is owned by Mrs. Edna Greer of Negley.

Elkton Pupils To Give Program During PTA

ELKTON — Children of the Elkton School will present a program during a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday night at the school. A homemade candy sale will be held.

Teachers of the school will have a Christmas party for the students Wednesday. Home-room mothers have been asked to donate cookies.

EUGENE COURTNEY

Courtney Named As New Manager For Cooperative

Eugene Courtney of Beloit R.D. 1 has been named manager of the Columbiana County Landmark Farm Bureau Cooperative, Leland Baker of Lisbon R.D. 5, president of the Columbiana County Landmark Board, has announced.

Courtney has been associated with the Landmark organization since 1960, first as petroleum manager and later as store manager at Lisbon. Before joining the Landmark staff, he was associated with his father in the feed business at Courtney's Mill in Beloit.

Born and reared on a farm near Beloit, Courtney was graduated from Sebring High School.

He is active in both the Columbiana County Farm Bureau and in the Smith Grange, which he has served as master.

He and his wife, Dixie, have four children — three sons and a daughter.

UAR Severs Its Relations With Britain

CAIRO (AP) — The United Arab Republic Thursday night became the fifth African nation to break diplomatic relations with Britain over Rhodesia.

Earlier, Ghana, Tanzania, Guinea and Mali heeded the call by the Organization of African Unity for its 36 members to break with London unless the British overthrew Prime Minister Ian Smith's Rhodesian government by last Wednesday.

Tass, the Soviet news agency, reported that four more OAU members, Nigeria, Mauritania, Senegal and the Congo Republic — Brazzaville, were also breaking with Britain. Senegal denied it would do so now, and there was no confirmation on the others.

Rhodesia's white minority government declared independence from Britain on Nov. 11 after negotiations broke down over Britain's insistence that Rhodesia's four million Africans be guaranteed ultimate control of the government. There are 220,000 whites in Rhodesia.

Britain has imposed economic sanctions against Rhodesia but refuses to use force to bring down the Smith regime. The African nations are in no position to mount a successful military operation against Rhodesia.

The U.A.R.'s decision to break surprised British diplomats in Cairo. After the OAU's deadline expired Wednesday, Egyptian officials said their government would postpone the break and backed Ethiopian Emperor Haile Selassie's call for another OAU conference on Dec. 21 to reconsider the matter.

Ghana and Tanzania are members of the British Commonwealth, and Tanzania appeared careful to preserve its Commonwealth ties in announcing its decision. But Ghana's President Kwame Nkrumah told his cheering Parliament that his government was considering leaving the Commonwealth as well.

He said Commonwealth membership had been a drawback in Ghana's pursuit of "a bold policy on African liberation and unity." He added, however, that British investments in Ghana — estimated at more than $500 million — and British technical experts employed by his government would not be affected.

Membership in the Commonwealth provides tariff benefits in trade with other Commonwealth nations, including Britain, and other economic advantages.

In Washington, British Prime Minister Harold Wilson began three days of talks with President Johnson and Rhodesia was on their agenda.

Indiana State College Given University Status Under Bill

HARRISBURG (AP) — A bill aimed at giving university status to Indiana State College was signed into law Thursday by Gov. Scranton.

In signing the bill, Scranton said he felt all planning for accreditation should await a master plan on higher education being developed by the state board. "In western Pennsylvania, it is apparent the University of Pittsburgh wishes some kind of state relationship, and I am sure there will be a need for greatly increased capacity for higher education facilities in that entire area," the governor said in a statement.

Opponents of the Indiana bill had maintained that its passage would conflict with efforts to formulate the master plan and would jeopardize the chances of the University of Pittsburgh to become a state-related university.

Sen. Albert R. Pechan, R-Armstrong, chief backer of the bill, said there was no doubt Pennsylvania needed more universities in the future. He therefore added that he saw no reason to wait for the master plan.

Pechan called for the upgrading of other state colleges to the point where some of them might also become universities.

Indiana officials said it may take several years to expand its curriculum as outlined in the new law. The college currently has an enrollment of 5,000 students.

Action Urged On Vocational School Setup

BEAVER — County commissioners Thursday adopted a resolution asking the County Planning Commission to conduct a study of current needs for vocational and technical education and methods to meet the needs.

It asked the planning group to seek advice and cooperation of the Beaver County School Directors Association and the office of the county school superintendent to determine how an institution could be established and in what manner school districts could participate.

The commissioners pointed out that the county has two institutions of higher learning — Geneva College and a branch of Penn State University — but the technological demands require specialized and trained personnel in other areas.

The program first was proposed several years ago, but nothing has been undertaken.

Commissioners spearheaded the drive for the establishment of the Penn State branch by providing a site and buildings and have an investment of about $1 million in the branch campus.

Second Watch Missed From Display At Store

Police filed a supplemental report Thursday on a burglary discovered yesterday morning at the jewelry store of James Locke Jr. on E. 5th St., showing a second watch worth $225 has turned up missing from the display window.

The discovery pushed to $455 the overall value of the missing merchandise, as the watch listed in the initial report was worth $230.

Police said the thief made a hole in the display window about one-half by three-quarters of an inch and then "fished" through the opening with a wire to pull out the small watches.

Monday Session To Be Last For 4 City Council Members

Monday night's meeting of City Council will be the last regular session for four members retiring at the end of a biennium after losing their seats in the 1965 elections.

The men due to step down Dec. 31 are all Democrats, giving way to three Republicans and a Democrat. Two lost their seats when they failed to win renomination in the party primaries in May. Two more were defeated in the general election Nov. 2.

THE CHANGEOVER on Jan. 1 means the GOP will regain control of Council by a single vote. The split for the next two years will be four Republicans and three Democrats. The division now is six Democrats and a lone Republican. Council also will have a new presiding officer, a Republican.

Councilman Floyd Murray, Democrat, will return to his First Ward post with the start of the new year, giving up the presidency. He was named to the presidency last fall after George E. Willshaw, Republican, moved up to succeed Mayor Merrill D. Hall, also a Republican, who resigned on Sept. 1. William Rea served as interim First Ward councilman.

Murray, meanwhile, had been nominated for a new term in the First Ward, winning election on Nov. 2.

Ernest A. Lowe of 410 Wedgewood St. will become Council president. He is vice president of the Mason Color & Chemical Works, Inc. Lowe won in the November election over Arch H. Smith of McKinnon Ave., Democrat.

Councilman James F. Cunningham, Democrat, will step out of the Second Ward seat, giving way to Mrs. Donna Richards Wilson of Ambrose Ave., a Republican and the only woman ever elected to a full term on Council.

Donald E. Smith, Democrat, of the Third Ward also is winding up his tenure. His successor is James E. Lowe of Lincoln Ave., Republican. Lowe is an employee of the Mackintosh-Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co. at Midland.

William E. Davis, Democrat, will retire as the Fourth Ward member, to be replaced by Harold R. Maylone of Dresden Ave., a Republican. Maylone is a TV serviceman.

TWO OF THE members-at-large are scheduled to serve in the new Council. They are Robert W. Sample of W. 6th St., Republican, who will start his fourth consecutive term, and Norman R. Bucher of Bradshaw Ave., a Democrat, beginning a second full term.

Frank P. Duffy of Holiday St., Democrat, will become the new member-at-large, replacing Donald Hancock of Pennsylvania Ave., also a Democrat.

Duffy, a veteran potter, also served as a member-at-large in 1962-63. He gave up the seat at the end of 1963 after running unsuccessfully as his party's nominee for mayor, losing to Hall.

The Council members-elect have been invited to attend Monday night's meeting.

ident-elect. Marcos and Lopez, running on the Nacionalista party ticket, defeated President Diosdado Macapagal and Sen. Gerardo Roxas of the Liberal party in the Nov. 9 election.

Ford's Daughter, Greek Magnate On Honeymoon

ST. MORITZ, Switzerland

(AP)—Automobile heiress Charlotte McDonnell Ford and Greek shipping magnate Stavros Niarchos arrived today to honeymoon at the same Alpine resort where her father honeymooned last February.

Miss Ford, 24-year-old elder daughter of Henry Ford II, and the 56-year-old Greek were married secretly in Juarez, Mexico, Thursday by a civil judge one day after Niarchos received a divorce from his second wife.

Miss Ford is a Roman Catholic. The couple came to Zurich in a chartered Boeing 707 jetliner and immediately took off in a private jet for Niarchos' chalet overlooking St. Moritz, the winter sports resort where her father honeymooned early this year with his second wife, Italian-born Maria Austin.

Compromise Set In Pennsylvania On School Plan

HARRISBURG — A compromise has been reached between House Democrats and Senate Republicans over the Scranton administration's proposed new school subsidy program.

Rep. Thomas F. Lamb, D-Allegheny, chairman of the House Elementary Education Committee, which wrote in several key amendments to the proposal, said Thursday the agreement would reduce the cost of the bill as written now from $115 million to about $107 million.

The changes are expected to be offered today in the House, putting the bill in position for a final vote next week.

The main revision inserted by Lamb and his committee was a poverty factor requiring the state to pay school districts an additional $100 per pupil for families with an income of less than $2,000 a year.

Under the agreement, the proposal is to be lowered to $90 per pupil.

Also changed will be another amendment adopted by the committee to raise the density factor to a flat $35 per pupil for qualifying districts. Lamb said this would be lowered to $30.

The density factor would assure Philadelphia schools, for instance, a $10 million boost in subsidies because of its dense population of 10,000 or more per square mile. School districts with a population of 50 persons or less per square mile also would be eligible for a special bonus if they chose to operate under the new program.

Wayne County Rejects War On Poverty Plan
WOOSTER, Ohio (AP) — Wayne County has rejected a three-county war on poverty program because of a lack of need and because of uncertain answers on how to use the funds.

bon will be used as a meeting site until the board obtains its own office space.

The speaker was Theodore A. Veenstra, director of programming in the Chicago regional office of the U. S. Public Housing Agency. He reviewed features of federal laws which allow local agencies to obtain U.S.-guaranteed loans with which to erect housing for the elderly and other low income groups. The units are rented at a nominal cost, dependent upon family income, and the rental funds are utilized to repay the long-term loans.

The meeting began with a dinner and concluded with a business session that ran until about 11 p. m.

Sharon Quigley, clerk, presented the board with an official seal on behalf of the commissioners.

East Liverpool also was represented by Mayor George E. Willshaw and former mayor Merrill D. Hall, one of the originators of the plan to establish a housing authority in the county.

Others attending included Robert Bycroft, director of the County Welfare Department, and Paul Durbak, director of the Steubenville Metropolitan Housing Authority, who has served as adviser to the area board.

Christmas Traffic Toll Expected To Hit 560

CHICAGO (AP)—Between 560 and 660 persons may die in traffic accidents during the nation's three-day Christmas weekend, according to the National Safety Council.

The council said Thursday that American motorists would drive an estimated 11.3 billion miles during the period, from 6 p. m. (local time) Thursday, Dec. 23, to midnight Sunday, Dec. 26. On an average, non-holiday weekend motorists travel some 8.9 billion miles.

Records indicate Christmas is the most dangerous holiday for motorists, council President Howard Pyle said.

voluntarily waived extradition when he appeared before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Cherstoff this morning following his release from City Hospital.

Grimes was turned over to custody of Beaver County and Midland officers, who attended the brief hearing.

Grimes had been in City Hospital since early Sunday morning, when he complained of chest pains while being held in City Jail. Released from the hospital at 9:23 this morning, he was taken into Municipal Court shortly after 10.

Police Continue Hunt For Gun In Robbery

Officers searched for the third consecutive day Thursday in the North Side - Dixonville area without locating a second revolver linked to a holdup attempt at Midland Saturday night in which a Chester man was wounded fatally. Police Chief A. J. Radeschi said today.

But the hunt will continue for the blue snub-nosed .38-caliber weapon which Walter Dardzinski of 2nd St. Midland, allegedly used in the fatal wounding of Stanley D. Simcox of Indiana Ave., Chester, the chief said.

An electronic detector earlier turned up another .38-caliber revolver which allegedly was carried either by Simcox or David L. Graham, 25, of Weirton when they attempted to hold up Dardzinski, a coin collector, the chief said.

Graham told local police he and Simcox wrestled away the Midland man's gun, then later discarded both weapons in East Liverpool. Simcox died at City Hospital less than 24 hours after the wounding.

Beaver Officials To Seek Site For Humane Society

BEAVER — County Commissioners Thursday vowed to "expend every effort" to help the Beaver County Humane Society find a new location.

The resolution adopted indicated the commissioners will go to court in an effort to obtain a site in Brady's Run Park or an alternate location.

Construction of the Vanport bridge has taken the society's present location.

The county previously offered a section of Brady's Run Park and partially prepared a building for the society's use.

However, the Brighton Township Zoning Board refused to permit the operation. Borough Township also refused several requests.

"The Humane Society's work is for the benefit of general health and welfare as evidenced by the service rendered in care of animals and control of rabies," the resolution declared.

Moore Hints He'll Run For Statewide Office

HUNTINGTON (AP) — West Virginia's only Republican in the House of Representatives, Arch A. Moore Jr., indicates he will run for a statewide office.

He told a gathering at the Marshall University Student Christian Center here that "there is a definite place for me in statewide office." He did not elaborate.

was near by and heard the girl's screams, pushed the car free of the girl's foot, carried her to headquarters and then obtained a cruiser to take her to the hospital. She was released after treatment for contusions and abrasions of the foot.

Officers said she ran into the side of a 1964 two-door sedan driven by Nelson Dale Carman, 25, of Salineville R.D. 3 and her foot was pinned under the wheel when the motorist stopped.

In the Lisbon St. mishap, Averiet told Patrolman Karl Samples he was driving upgrade about 25 miles an hour when the boy ran down the steps and into the path of his car. "I didn't have a chance to stop in time," the driver said. He said he swerved in an unsuccessful attempt to miss the child. Samples measured 18 feet of skid marks on the pavement before the impact.

The officer said the boy related he did not know what happened.

Evidence at the scene indicated the boy ran down the steps, then along the sidewalk at an angle for about eight feet before dashing into the street, the officer said.

Four witnesses corroborated Averiet's statement. They were listed as Mike and Doreta Averiet of Akron, passengers in his car, and Charles R. Cronin of S. Surrey Rd. and George H. Mase of 816 Division St.

In the Market St. mishap, Lt. Tice said the girl stepped from between two parked cars into the side of the Carman auto. He said she struck the auto just to the rear of the right front wheel. He was standing at the southeast corner of 5th and Market Sts. and hurried to the scene when he heard the girl scream.

Carman said he was driving south about 10 to 15 miles an hour when he saw the girl run from the sidewalk. He said he applied his brakes in an unsuccessful attempt to halt.

splashdown point. "There's a lot riding on that," he told mission control.

Ideal weather conditions that prevailed during the Gemini 6 re-entry will continue Saturday forecasters said.

After keeping cautious watch on the power system through the night, flight directors gave the green light for a full mission to Borman and Lovell as they soared near Bermuda.

This was soon after Gemini 7 entered its 190th orbit.

A warning light, supposed to indicate fuel cell trouble although ground station monitors said the unit's power output was normal, flashed on Thursday. It finally flickered out about 2:20 a.m. today but started burning anew before completion of another orbit.

John D. Hodge, the overnight flight director, said the cell nevertheless would last at least 150 hours beyond the end of the scheduled 14-day mission.

"The Blue (midnight to 8 a.m. control) team is happy to give you a go-ahead," Hodge told command pilot Borman.

This sent Air Force Lt. Col. Borman and Navy Cmdr. Lovell streaking on toward an intended splashdown in the area where Gemini 6 descended Thursday.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: My husband is a brilliant student at the state university. Two weeks before we were married Tim's friends gave him a stag party at which he got very drunk. The boys decided to drive him to a strange part of town, take off his trousers and leave him stranded. Tim doesn't recall what happened, but he knows he wandered into a backyard. About 2:30 a.m. some people called the police and had him arrested. Tim spent the night jail. Thank heavens the police understood it was a prank. They released him the next morning and the trespassing charges were dropped. What happened to Tim proves that one evening of foolishness can cause months of heartache. My husband has been a nervous wreck ever since. He is afraid the incident will ruin his career. I've talked until I'm blue in the face but he still worries. Can you say something to put his mind at ease?—MRS. R. C.

Dear Mrs.: If the charges were dropped there is no record. If Tim wants to drain his energies worrying about something that doesn't exist, he's not brilliant. He's stupid.

Sick, Sick, Sick

Dear Ann: I'm the mother of four children — two girls and two boys. They range from 6 to 12 years of age. All winter long, one or two of my four children are out of school with a bad cold or worse. I went to school yesterday to see the oldest boy in a play. Now I know why my kids are always sick. Five kids in that room should have been at home. I was shocked to see so many red noses, so much coughing, wheezing, sneezing and blowing. One boy looked like he had pink eye. Some mothers push their half-sick children out the door because they don't want to bother with them. I feel this is unfair to the other youngsters and I want to know what can be done about it. — FURIOUS.

Dear Furious: You are right. Too many irresponsible mothers shove their sick kids out of the house when they should be kept at home.

It's up to the teacher to spot these youngsters and send them to the school nurse. The nurse should then decide whether the child should stay in school or be shipped home.

Extended Sentence

Dear Ann: A friend of mine gave her boss four weeks' notice. There was no trouble. Suzy just got tired of the job and decided to do something more interesting. Her boss offered her a sizable salary increase and tried to get her to stay but she told him her mind was made up.

Suzy has one more week to go and is eager to get out. Yesterday her boss asked her to please stay on an additional two weeks. Do you think this is fair? Suzy is afraid that if she refuses the boss will not give her a good recommendation. We would like your opinion.—WINNIPEG.

Dear Winnie: Although you don't say so, your letter makes it clear that Suzy does not yet have another job. If this is indeed the case I feel it would be extremely generous of her to work the additional two weeks and help the boss out.

She should make it clear, however, that she cannot stay beyond that time under any circumstances.

There is much to be said for terminating a working relationship on a friendly note. Suzy never will regret it.

Johnson Fails To Act On Judgeship

Rep. Harris Plans To Be In House Seat On Jan. 10

WASHINGTON (AP) — Colleagues of Rep. Oren Harris joined in farewell eulogies to a departing member before Congress adjourned in October. Harris responded with what was considered a farewell address.

But Harris now plans to be in his seat when the House reconvenes Jan. 10.

The reason: President Johnson, who nominated the Arkansas Democrat in July to be a federal judge, still hasn't signed the formal commission although the Senate confirmed the nomination in August. And Harris doesn't plan to give up his House seat until his new judicial position is official.

Reached by telephone at his home in El Dorado, Harris wouldn't comment on the unusual delay between the time of his confirmation and the time he can officially don his judicial robes.

His colleagues advanced some of their own theories.

Most of them said the political situation in Arkansas was at the root of the delay. State law provides for runoff elections between the two top candidates when no one receives a majority of votes in a primary election. But it doesn't provide for a runoff in a special election to fill a vacancy.

In a special election, the top man would win even though he did not receive a majority of the votes.

"About 15 people already have indicated that they would like to run," an Arkansas political expert said. "We don't know who would win in a race like that. A Republican, or a Negro, could come out on top if the Democrats split their majority of votes among a dozen or more candidates."

For that reason, he explained, Gov. Orval E. Faubus might not call a special election to name a successor to Harris but would leave the seat vacant until it is filled in the regular election next November.

Such a course would leave the people of the 4th Congressional District without representation in the House after Harris resigned. To avoid that situation, Harris' judicial commission might be held up until some of the major bills have been acted on by the House next year.

Another explanation for the delay was that the President wants Harris — who will be 62 next Monday — to steer several more bills through the House before bowing out.

Harris is chairman of the Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee, which this year handled some major bills in the "Great Society" program.

$82,875 Snubbed By Beverly Hills In Poverty Funds

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — This wealthy city of movie stars and millionaires has declined with a "thank you anyway," an offer of $82,875 in poverty funds.

"We really didn't feel we could honestly say the money was needed," said School Supt. Kenneth L. Peters. "We were able to find only eight children of 5,000 enrolled who could possibly be classed as 'needy.'"

"In our judgment, these children are not educationally deprived or handicapped. They are in small classes that average 25 and remedial help is available if needed."

The allotment formula, under the 1965 Federal Education Act, was based on the 1960 census which showed that of 30,817 Beverly Hills residents, 460 families reported an average income of less than $2,000.

Santa and the Zabbazara Bus

BY LUCRECE BEALE

Synopsis: Santa shows Mr. D the Island of Zabbazara on a map of Faraway Places. They and the little boy get on the bus and set out for the island.

CHAPTER II

They rode all day and they rode all night. On the morning of the second day they arrived at the edge of a blue-green sea. In the middle of the sea was a golden isle. This was Zabbazara.

Santa and Mr. D and the little boy got out of the bus.

"There's no bridge!" cried the little boy. "And no boat. How will we get across the sea?"

Santa pointed to an old sea trunk on the beach. A sign on the trunk said "Free ride to Zabbazara." They opened the trunk. It was filled with pieces of colored rubber.

"They're balloons!" exclaimed Mr. D. "What use are they?"

THE LITTLE boy snatched out a purple balloon and began to blow it up. In two breaths it was bigger than he. He could hardly hold on to it. A little breeze tugged at the balloon. Before he knew what had happened the boy was in the air and sailing over the sea.

"My goodness!" cried Mr. D. "What a wonderful way to travel!"

He took a balloon out of the box and blew it up. In a few seconds he was sailing after the boy. A moment later Santa, too, was on his way.

When they came near the island, the little breeze died down as if someone had pressed a button. The three travelers floated down gently.

Now they saw that the island was not all gold. But the trees bore such golden apples and oranges and pears and bananas, and the flowers had such bright yellow blossoms, that it seemed truly a golden island.

A GROUP of laughing children burst through the trees and surrounded the visitors.

"Come play with us!" Santa shook his head. "We don't have time for play. We have work to do."

"But there's no work here! We only play!"

"Don't you even go to school?" asked the little lost boy in astonishment.

"What for? We know all we need to know."

"Perhaps you had better take us to your elders," said Santa.

The children hooted. "We have no elders! There are no grownups in Zabbazara."

The little boy thought he had a Princess, and they would take Santa to see her. They led the visitors out of the trees and down a golden street to a golden palace. There in a golden hall on a golden throne sat the Princess. She was no older in years than the little lost boy, who thought that never again in his life would he see so lovely and shining a creature.

THE PRINCESS smiled graciously. Santa told her he had heard she had great power and could grant any wish and break any charm. He asked her help in breaking the spell the evil Voodoo man had cast over Santa Land.

The Princess' smile vanished. She sent all the golden-haired children out of the palace. Then she said, "What you have told me makes me fearful for us all. The Voodoo man threatens us, too, and I do not want the others to know."

Airborne, the trio headed for the golden island.

"But you have great power," began Santa.

The Princess looked even younger than her years. "Alas! The Voodoo man has found a secret magic that makes his power greater than mine. There is no magic I can work against him. Unless we find what his secret is he will destroy us all."

Attorney General Denied Right To Speak At Hearing

HARRISBURG (AP) — House hearings in an investigation of state police morale and promotion and transfer policies are in recess until after Jan. 1.

They were adjourned Thursday after a stormy session in which Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alessandrini was denied permission to make a statement.

Alessandrini then broke into Gov. Scranton's weekly news conference elsewhere in the Capitol to tell newsmen that he had wanted to ask the committee to shift its attention temporarily to consider a bill to add 300 troopers to the state police force.

Committee Chairman Ronald G. Lench, D-Beaver, said Alessandrini was not allowed to testify because he had made a statement at the outset of the hearings. Lench charged the attorney general with trying to run the proceedings.

Lench said there is no need for immediate consideration of the state police personnel proposal, adding that there will be time if, as Democrats contend, the current session can be extended past the start of the fiscal session Jan. 4. He also said it could be handled in a special session.

Lench added that if the attorney general is correct in saying that the regular session ends Jan. 4 there is no time to consider additional policemen.

He also said other legislation could stem from the hearings, including fixed rules for promotions and transfers.

Only one witness was heard at the final hearing.

Former Capt. Richard S. Gray of York, who had commanded the Harrisburg troop for five years prior to his resignation last February, said morale in his command was generally good but that his men had a low opinion of new promotion and transfer policies. He said he had quit rather than accept a transfer.

As Lench was adjourning the hearings, Perrin C. Hamilton, state police counsel, said that 16 troop commanders were present and "anxious to testify." They were not heard.

School Budget OK'd By Pittsburgh Board

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Board of Public Education has adopted a 1966 budget of $44,322,900.

Supt. Sidney P. Marquard Jr. described the budget, adopted Thursday, as "precariously balanced," but said no tax increase would be required.

The budget was $850,000 more than an estimate made a month ago.

The increase represents what the city expects to get as its share of a $34 million state surplus. The budget anticipates raises for teachers and other school employees.

Boost In Speed Limits Eyed In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House will get a second look at a bill proposing a new point system of driver suspension, but this time the legislation also contains increased speed limits for cars, trucks and buses.

The Senate returned the point system bill to the House Thursday on a 33-8 vote.

The legislation's main intent when it first went through the House was to replace the present suspension program, based primarily on the severity of the offense.

But a key Senate amendment would increase speed limits for passenger cars from 50 to 55 miles an hour, in addition to authorizing varying higher speeds for tractor-trailers and buses. This point was attacked by Sens. Donald O. Oesterling, D-Butler, and Louis C. Johanson, D-Philadelphia.

"A suspension of driving privileges on the basis of accumulated points... is, I believe, a fair and equitable improvement to our traffic safety program," said Oesterling. "However, the amendment increasing the legal speed limit is unthinkable."

Majority leader Stanley G. Stroup replied by saying that another amendment would authorize the highways secretary to reduce the limits on roads where engineering studies indicated a reduction was merited.

Thus, he contended, Johanson's and Oesterling's complaints were unwarranted.

Weir Steel Sets Retroactive Pay Of $1,900,000

WEIRTON — Some $1,900,000 in retroactive pay will be distributed to its employees next Wednesday by the Weirton Steel Co.

C. G. Tournay, president, said production and maintenance employees will receive pay due them under the minimum wage increase of 11 cents an hour for the period May 1 through Dec. 6 in the labor agreement announced Dec. 7 by Weirton Steel and the Independent Steelworkers Union. Salaried employees receive the pay under a salary increase that was granted on Nov. 16.

The retroactive pay will be made by separate checks at all company pay stations, with none of the checks mailed to employees' homes or banks, Tournay said.

Two Held In Slaying Of Pennsylvania Man

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Abraham Crews, 29, and Fred Tedders, 25, both of nearby Duquesne, are being held on murder charges in the stabbing last month of a McKeesport cab driver.

Crews and Tedders, arrested Thursday, denied the charges at a preliminary hearing before Allegheny County Coroner Joseph B. Dobbs.

They are accused of stabbing Raymond Germak, 37, during an attempted robbery Nov. 13.

Chan May Shuffle Lineup Again

Potter coach Frank Chan plans to shuffle the starting lineup again for tonight's game with Midland as he seeks to find a winning combination.

Chan said "we need that first win under our belts so we can relax out there. I think after one victory we will be alright."

THE LATEST change by the Potter mentor may show Denny Smith, a 5-10 junior, replacing senior Chuck Lipscomb at one of the guard spots.

"Smith has good speed and

Seeking Winning Combine

hustles a lot," Chan pointed out. Smith, in moving up from the reserve squad, would be paired with Darryl Herring at guard.

Lipscomb also has been battling the flu all week and has not been able to go full strength Chan said.

THE POTTER mentor also announced today that Mitchell Jones, the 6-5 sophomore who has shown some promise in early games, would not dress for tonight's game and may be out for a week with the flu.

For height Chan plans to insert Dick Witherow, 6-4 junior or Bill Carter, a 6-2 junior, into the lineup if he has to make some early adjustments.

WINTERS played two fine games for us last week and I am pleased with his performance," Chan added. Winters scored 37 points in the two games.

Vern Smith has been bothered by a bruised foot this week but is expected to start tonight.

Looking at tonight's opponent Chan said "we will have to play our best game to beat Midland. They have a hustling club and work hard on the backboards. This is a real good team and probably one of the best we will face all season."

"WELLSVILLE has a scrappy team and it always has taken a good East Liverpool team to win at Wellsville," Chan added.

Saturday's reserve game at Wellsville will start at 6:45 p.m. with the varsity contest getting under way about 8:15.

Central Five Leads Small College Poll

By The Associated Press

The Evansville, Ind., Aces, last season's final leader in The Associated Press small-college basketball poll, have taken an early back seat to Central State of Ohio.

This season's initial vote by 15 regional experts placed the Maunders on top followed by Evansville, Southern Illinois, North Dakota and Grambling.

Central State, which had a 30-0 record last season, was 5-0 this year through Wednesday night's games. The Wilberforce, Ohio, team collected six first-place votes and 92 points in the balloting.

After the poll results were announced, another Ohio team, Steubenville, spoiled Central State's unbeaten record by upsetting them 59-57.

Evansville, beaten by Iowa of the Big Ten in its first start, had three first-place votes and 89 points while Southern Illinois had 70 points, including two votes for the top position.

Central State, named as the No. 1 small college by an Associated Press poll, was defeated 59-57 Thursday by Steubenville College at the Community Arena.

San Diego's Lowe Named In Comeback

NEW YORK (AP) — Paul Lowe, the running sensation of the American Football League, has been voted the Comeback Player of the Year for his ability to bounce back strong after injuries threatened his career.

Lowe sat out the entire 1962 season with a broken arm and won the comeback award by gaining 1,010 yards in 1963. Last year he saw limited action due to a torn muscle in this right leg and his production dropped off to 513 yards and five touchdowns.

The injury jinx hit again this season when a torn muscle in his left leg forced him to miss the exhibition season of the San Diego Chargers.

On opening day, Lowe ran for 122 yards against Denver and started on his way to his current total of 1,089 yards, only 10 short of the league record set by Clem Daniels of Oakland in 1963. The former Oregon State star has enjoyed four 100-yard-plus days and has the rushing title wrapped up with one game to go.

The Review Sports

Batting At .500 Mark So Far

Inexperience Marks Southern Five

Southern Local, which shows a lack of experience, has battled to a 2-2 record so far in the young basketball season.

Coach Al Girone, who has had four games to look over his team reported "the boys accepted the challenge of a tough schedule which has no breathers. Their attitude has been very good and I look forward to an interesting season."

"We lack experience but the keen desire to learn which has prevailed so far in four games should make this team an interesting one."

John McCord, a 5-9 junior is the lone letterman on the team and Girone says "McCord is doing a steady job as floor man."

"Chuck Bettis and Lonnie Fields are my boardmen in the starting lineup while Gene Goddard and Dwain McKenzie have shown improvement in making a change from reserve to varsity ball."

The Indians are small with Bettis at 6-2 the only starter over 6-foot.

Southern meets rival United tonight at Hanoverton while returning home to face Lisbon Saturday.

Southern has scored victories over Crestview and Stanton while dropping decisions to Jefferson Union and Springfield.

Assisting Girone this season is Paul Headland.

Mountaineers Favored In Milwaukee Classic

MILWAUKEE (AP) — West Virginia University is considered the favorite in the fourth annual Milwaukee Classic basketball tournament which begins here tonight.

The Mountaineers arrived in Milwaukee Thursday with a 4-1 record, as many victories as the three other participants combined. It is the first appearance in the tournament for WVU.

Marquette (2-3) will duel the speedy Mountaineers in the first round while Wisconsin (1-3) will clash with Washington (1-2) in the second round.

The losers will play for third place Saturday night with the winners deciding the championship.

UCLA won the tournament last year enroute to the National Collegiate Athletic Association championship.

Packers Can Wrap It Up

Green Bay Picked To Win, Rams Get Nod Over Colts

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Green Bay should wrap up the Western Conference title Sunday on the final day of the season if the Packers can generate the same smashing power they showed in beating Baltimore last Sunday.

The battered Colts figure to have their hands full Saturday against the revived Los Angeles Rams in the Coliseum. Chicago can be expected to pull out all the stops against Minnesota with Gale Sayers going for the scoring title and the Bears still clinging to a hope of a tie for first.

NFL, 28-15-5 in the AFL and 88-45-6 for the season.

Let's try once more: (All games Sunday unless otherwise noted):

NFL
Los Angeles 21, Baltimore 14. Saturday — with Gary Cuozzo out of action. Tom Matte or Ed Brown must carry the load in this nationally televised game over CBS. Colts desperately need this one but must go with inexperienced passer or vet who never has worked with receivers.

Green Bay 21, San Francisco 14 — Paul Hornung and Jim Taylor looked like one-two punch of old against Colts and Bart Starr was on beam. Solid Packer defense beat 49ers 27-10.

in mid-October but it must be at top level to handle John Brodie-Dave Parks battery. San Francisco offense in high gear but their defense hasn't stopped many Packers favored.

Washington 28, Pittsburgh 10 — Redskins are trying safety Paul Krause at split end with Pat Richter out and are benching Charley Taylor for George Hugley. Steelers in tough shape have lost six in a row and had nine passes intercepted last week by Eagles. Washington romped 31-3 Nov. 21 and should repeat. Redskins favored.

Chicago 42, Minnesota 21 — All out for the races. Gale Sayers scored six last week and ripped the Vikings for four TDs the first time they saw him Oct. 17 in 45-37 Chicago win. Vikings snapped out of it against Lions but their defense is in for another long afternoon. Bears favored.

New York 28, Dallas 24 — This is for second place and a trip to the Playoff Bowl at Miami. Giants go if they win or tie. Cowboys must win to get the sun tan.

Cleveland 28, St. Louis 14 — Charley Johnson underwent shoulder operation this week so beat-up Cards must go with Buddy Humphrey. Browns had their letdown in Los Angeles and should be tuning up for Jan. 2 title game. Jim Brown needs TDs to catch up with Sayers. Cleveland favored despite 49-13 beating by St. Louis, Sept. 26.

Philadelphia 17, Detroit 14 — Eagles have more punch, but Lions' rugged defense will make it real tight.

Yat Captures '65 Slugging Title In AL

BOSTON (AP) — Carl Yastrzemski of the Boston Red Sox, runner-up to batting champion Tony Oliva of Minnesota last season, won the American League's slugging title in 1965, the final averages confirmed today.

Yastrzemski compiled a .536 slugging mark, collecting 265 total bases in 494 times at bat. Among his extra-base hits were 45 doubles, three triples and 20 home runs.

Tony Conigliaro, another Boston outfielder, and first baseman Norm Cash of Detroit tied for second at .512. They were followed by Leon Wagner of Cleveland .495, Oliva .491, Willie Horton of Detroit .490 and Tom Tresh of the New York Yankees and Frank Howard, Washington, .477 each.

In the official batting averages released earlier this week, Yastrzemski had a .512 average to Oliva's .521.

Browns Sign 255-Pound End From Massachusetts

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Browns have signed Milt Morin, a 255-pound end from the University of Massachusetts who was their No. 1 choice in the National Football League draft.

The 25-year-old athlete from Leominster, Mass., signed the contract presented to him Thursday by Browns Owner Art Modell in the league offices in New York City. Modell explained the signing took place in New York so Morin would miss a minimum of classroom work.

Morin's contract, which included to say whether the Browns' $100,000-package class.

"There are so many different types of agreements that it's difficult to place a flat value on a contract," Modell said. "It is our policy not to pay any rookie a higher base salary than a veteran at a corresponding position."

Morin caught 29 passes this year for 557 yards and four touchdowns.

Waterford Ends Long Race Meet San Diego Loses

Happy Holidays Event Features Final Card

Waterford Park will conclude a year of racing Saturday, marking the end of the longest race meeting at one track in the history of sport.

Waterford will resume racing with a spring meeting on Feb. 26 with day racing until April 26 when it will revert to night racing through October. Winding up the year on Dec. 31 with 252 programs for 1966, featuring a purse distribution of over $2,600,000.

During 1965 the track ran more feature events of both purse value and class than during any other year of its history.

Highlight of the year at this northern panhandle track, owned by James F. Edwards, was the sixth running of the West Virginia Derby, won by Pantivity, the Canadian invader, trained by Pat Santo, who accounted for his third consecutive win in the $7,500 added classic.

The traditional Waterford Silver Plate Mile went to Youngstown-owned Bellow 11, racing in the silks of Mickey Saffron. In winning the event Bellow 11, came from last place at the quarter-pole to bowl over horses and win going away. Saffron's horse has also won important races at River Downs and Aqueduct, N. Y.

The current year has been a banner one for Waterford Park with many innovations. On April 26, the track launched its first night racing session. A quarter-million watts of light drenched the racing strip, making it brighter than daylight.

On June 26, the fabulous new club house, costing $1,600,000, was opened. At the same time the new Cap and Whip Club, exclusively for members and their guests, was unveiled. All ceilings in the grandstand and indoor paddock were completely finished in acoustical materials. The glass enclosed edifice is totally air - conditioned and heated.

Saturday's final card will be featured by the Happy Holidays Handicap at a 1-1-6 miles for a $3,000 purse.

Officials Eye 2 Sites For New Stadium

CINCINNATI (AP)—The hunt for a site for Cincinnati's proposed 60,000-seat sports stadium has narrowed to two places—suburban Blue Ash and the near downtown area around Crosley Field.

Crosley Field, home of the Cincinnati Reds baseball team, lies on the edge of an urban redevelopment area.

Charles W. Staab, president of the Greater Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, says the final decision on a site of the $20 million stadium won't be made until next week when a steering committee reports to Gov. James A. Rhodes.

A visit by Rhodes—and Paul Brown, former coach of the Cleveland Browns—really got the stadium project moving Tuesday. Both said they would go all out to get Cincinnati a National Football League franchise. Brown said he would coach the team, whose schedule would start in 1967.

Sources close to the former coach say he favors the Blue Ash site.

City Manager William C. Wichman had other ideas, declaring, "We're spending hundreds of millions redeveloping downtown and we ought to put our main attraction there."

Namath Is Picked AFL's Top Rookie

NEW YORK (AP) — "That's real nice," said Joe Namath when he was informed that he had been selected Rookie of the Year in the American Football League.

"You must have run out of candidates,"
And so, using the defense mechanism — the quick retreat — that he has employed in accepting praise throughout the season while trying to avoid appearing immodest, the likeable $400,000 quarterback of the New York Jets accepted his latest honors.

Namath was selected Thursday by an Associated Press panel of 24 sports writers — three from each league city — and was a landslide winner with 18 votes to three for the runner-up, Denver linebacker John Bramlett.

Election of the 225-pound defensive standout by his teammates was announced Thursday. Downing, 20, played both as a linebacker and middle guard this season and was twice chosen center on the weekly Eastern College Athletic Conference All-East team.

He was among Navy's leading tacklers in both his sophomore and junior years.

Downing attended Lorain and Admiral King high schools in Ohio, where he won three football letters and also played basketball and baseball.

Scranton Stresses Yule's True Meaning

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton said today the challenge of Christmas is to know its full meaning: "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace and good will amongst men."

In remarks prepared for a tree lighting ceremony in the Capitol rotunda, Scranton said: "If we cannot grasp the message of good will to men and keep each year a slightly larger portion of this spirit of the season in our hearts throughout the year, then Christmas becomes a holiday tarnished by too much tinsel."

San Diego Loses 3 Stars To NFL

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
National Football League

teams, throwing a 1-2-3 combination from coast to coast, have beaten the American League's San Diego Chargers to their top three draft choices—Don Davis, Nick Rassas and Milt Morin.

Within an hour Thursday the NFL had pulled off the rapid-fire coup this way:

—Davis, a 255-pound defensive tackle from Los Angeles State, was signed in Los Angeles by the New York Giants, who had selected him as their No. 2 pick.

—Rassas, an All-America defensive back at Notre Dame, signed in Atlanta with the NFL's new Falcons, who had made him a second-round selection.

—Morin, a 6-foot-4, 245-pound receiver from the University of Massachusetts, signed in New York with the Cleveland Browns, who had tapped him as their No. 1 choice.

No salary figures were announced but all were believed to be in the six-figure class.

The signings continued the NFL's raid on the San Diego club, added to Atlanta's impressive collection of talent and gave the NFL another boost over the AFL in the number of premier signings.

NFL teams previously had picked off the Chargers fourth choice, halfback Charles Brown of Syracuse; their fifth choice, Miami halfback Russ Smith; and their eighth selection, linebacker Doug Buffone of Louisville. Brown and Buffone signed with Chicago while Smith went with Atlanta.

The Falcons now have signed five of their first six selections, including the big one—Texas linebacker Tommy Nobis. In addition, they also have signed two of Rassas' Notre Dame teammates, receiver Phil Sheridan and halfback Bill Wolski.

Morin was the 11th of 16 first-round selections to be corralled by the NFL, which has lost only one top choice.

The AFL, on the other hand, has signed five of its 10 first-round picks and lost three to the NFL.

Syracuse Tops Penn State For Sixth Straight Victory

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Syracuse, one of the disappointments of the college basketball season a year ago, is on the way back.

In contrast to their poor start last season when they won their first game then lost six in a row, the Orangemen chalked up their sixth straight against non-conference opponents with a 103-79 victory over previously unbeaten Penn State Thursday night.

Dave Bing, a 6-foot-3 from Washington, D.C., delighted a record turnout of 6,913 at the Manly Field House on the Syracuse campus. He paced the Orangemen with 24 points, 10 rebounds and six assists.

Carver Clinton, with 28 points, led the Nittany Lions who stayed in contention until Syracuse took a nine-point lead 79-70 late in the second half.

Another youth from the nation's capital, Bob Lewis, also made headlines.

Lewis, a 6-3 junior, set an all-time individual one-game scoring record for North Carolina with 49 points as the Tar Heels swamped Florida State 115-80 at Chapel Hill.

Lewis hit on 18 of 25 shots from the field and got 13 of 16 free throws as he erased the previous Tar Heel one-game record of 48 points set last year by Billy Cunningham against Tulane. In addition Lewis grabbed seven rebounds and handed out five assists.

Tony Hinkle, veteran Butler coach, again was thwarted in his bid for his 500th career victory.

when ninth-ranked Bradley defeated his Bulldogs 73-70 at Peoria. It was the seventh straight victory for the unbeaten Braves, the only team in the Associated Press Top Ten, to play Thursday.

Houston, paced by Joe Hammond's 20 points, won the unofficial championship of the two-day Bluebonnet Classic at Houston by defeating Texas A&M 90-85. The Cougars were the only ones to win on both nights.

South Carolina, which had surprised Duke, the AP's No. 1 team last week, took a 83-66 trouncing from NYU in the feature of a New York doubleheader.

Stan McKenzie scored a career high of 37 points for the Violets. Unbeaten DePaul swamped Iowa 82-37 in the other game at Madison Square Garden.

The 36-game winning streak of Central State of Ohio, No. 1 in the AP small-college poll, was snapped by Steubenville 57 on John Hummel's jump shot in the last second of play.

The Evansville Aces, No. 2 and defending NCAA small-college champs, also lost. They were beaten by Mt. St. Mary's 83-81 on Mike Lyons' layup with eight seconds left.

Church Of England

Revises Prayer Book

LONDON (AP) — In a modernization move the Church of England has made the first major revision of its prayer book in more than 300 years.

The revision includes alternate forms of service that may be used starting next May 1 if approved by two-thirds of the Church Assembly.

Dr. Michael Ramsey, the archbishop of Canterbury and primate of all England, called the innovations "adventurous." He emphasized that each parish was free to decide whether it would try the experimental services or keep to the traditional forms given in the Act of Uniformity of 1662.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: From my memories of childhood, most of our tree trimmings were edible, and so it is with ours. You might say these are directions for a Yum-Yum Christmas tree.

I don't need as many ornaments on my tree, because it is laden with candy canes and gum drops (pierced with the straightened end of an ornament hook), and hung in great abundance. It makes the tree truly enchanting.

And here's your nylon net again!

Cut squares of varied colors, large enough to gather up around a small tangerine, leaving enough of the tie string or ribbon to make a loop for the tree. Use small apples, polished until they gleam, wrapped and tied with the same net.

Cookies and gingerbread men, decorated like Santas, are baked with the string in the dough. I use the string to hang the gingerbread men on the tree. Of course, I don't use artificial snow or angel hair on my tree. My little girl delights in inviting her little friends over for a yummy from her tree.

This also teaches her the joy of giving.

L. CLARK.

DEAR FOLKS: Here's a little hint for those of you who buy cheese in one or two pound boxes: When you cut the cheese at one end (After removing the foil), try using one of those little ol' plastic sandwich bags over the cut end and putting a rubber band around it, before you put it back in the box.

Fits like a glove. Keeps the air out so the cheese won't dry. Can be used over and over again.

After capping the cut end with the plastic bag, always put the cheese back in the cardboard carton it came in. Sure saves cheese in the long run.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Your suggestion to use discarded auto cool-cushions as door mats has been gratefully received at our house.

We discovered another use for them:

When our little dog has muddy feet, we stand her on the cushion to wash 'em. The mud and water goes through the mesh, and she doesn't pick up the old, dirty water when she suddenly decides to sit or lie down in the middle of the ordeal.

Cleaner feet, too.

DEAR HELOISE: Fabric softeners, when added to the final rinse of the washing cycle of your washing machine, will help eliminate static electricity in clothing.

JOAN KING.

DEAR HELOISE: At last I have solved the problem of uneven and pulled-out stitching on bound button holes.

Using the buttonhole attachment on the sewing machine, I work the desired size of buttonhole—the material will determine the thickness and width of the stitching.

Do NOT cut open, but simply baste the piece of material over the worked buttonhole and stitch as closely as possible to the outside edges and ends of the machine stitching.

Cut the buttonhole, pull the material through, as in making an ordinary bound buttonhole, and finish it the same way.

This method saves endless measuring, marking, and eliminates the ends pulling out, and having uneven, crooked sides.

MRS. JEAN FIELDS

DEAR HELOISE: When cleaning celery, I have found that a potato peeler is very good to use. It takes off the strings in nothing flat.

Lu.

DEAR HELOISE: I'm 12 years old, and hope my hint will help someone.

During a snowstorm, I found that by using small plastic bags INSIDE my mittens, I was able to keep my hands dry longer, and make more snowballs that way.

Also, my hands stayed warmer.

FRANCIS KLING.

Spirit Of Christmas Moves Nashvillians

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The Christmas spirit has moved many Nashvillians to offer homes to the Albert T. Davis family, left without a place to live when fire destroyed their house Wednesday morning.

Only thing is, Davis says, he's taken a liking to the barn where he and the other five members of his family have been living since the fire. He says he thinks he'll stay there.

"I thank everyone for their offers of places to live," the 50-year-old salvage dealer says.

"But I think 'his barn' can be fixed up, and we'd rather stay around here, close to the school and the people we know."

12 Days Scheduled For Ohio State Fair

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Ohio State Fair will run 12 days next year for the first time ever, the Ohio Expositions Commission has decided. The dates are Aug. 25-Sept. 5.

With the addition of one extra day, Fair Manager E. J. Keirns commented, the state show will start on the concluding day of five county fairs. But he said livestock judging won't start until the second day, a Friday, so that animal exhibitors at the Logan County, Marion, Madison, Allen and Butler County fairs won't have to move their stock until those are over.

40 Children Given Treat By Kiwanians

Thirty-six public school children and two from St. Aloysius Parochial School were feted during the annual Kiwanis Club Christmas treat for needy youngsters Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

Two children were unable to attend because of illness, but their gifts were taken to them, Marion Horger, general chairman of the event, said.

Each child received a candy fruit, clothing and a toy, in addition to a meal, all provided by personal contributions from members, not from club funds. John Elferd, who was absent, provided $1 each for the children.

The Christmas story was related by the Rev. Allen Conway. Rowland Kaufman led singing.

On Horger's committee were Dayton Allen, Bill Webber, Dr. Alex Fisher, Harry Martin, Tait Hilbert, Paul Blair, Dr. Roland Stover and Harry George.

Martin and Stover were chairmen of the transportation committee, which included James Roslund, Fred Simmen, Collin Neal, Richard Emmerling, James McGowan, James Reaney, Dr. Charles Waggoner, Robert Bernstorf, Merrill Hall, Alex Kidd and Stover.

Women assisting included Mrs. Hilbert, Mrs. Glenn Wilson, Mrs. William Porter and Mrs. Waggoner. Bill Montooth and Fred Daily, Beaver Local Key Club boys, and Dave Emmerling and Roger Aronson, East Liverpool Key Club boys, also assisted.

Mrs. Edna Jones, school nurse, was a guest.

Three Members Of Newell Legion Named To Posts

Three members of Newell American Legion Post 114 have been appointed to national and department posts.

Dewaine Staley, commander, and Tony LaNeve, adjutant, have been named to the national membership and post activities committee.

They were notified of their appointments in letters from L. Eldon James, national commander. The appointments were approved by the national executive committee meeting in Indianapolis.

Staley and LaNeve were nominated on the recommendation of department officials in recognition of services to the West Virginia department and Newell post.

LaNeve also was appointed as a member of the executive section, department bowling committee.

George LaNeve was appointed district chairman of the department contest supervisory committee. He also will serve on the state publications committee.

Steve's Is A Classic Among Lists For Santa

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) — Among Christmas lists for Santa Claus, Steven Kilgore's is a classic.

If it doesn't stupefy poor old St. Nick, it'll make him bankrupt.

The request from the 6-year-old: A cowboy suit, cowboy hat, gun, boots, holster, horse, corral, barn, hay and 10 acres of land to ride about on.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Amnesia Victim Admits To Police He Has 2 Wives

CLEVELAND (AP) — A 27-

year-old ironworker being treated as an amnesia victim at Deaconess Hospital admitted Thursday night that he has two wives, police reported. He was identified as Robert Meinhart of suburban Brooklyn.

Detectives who questioned him said Meinhart is wanted by Strongsville police on a warrant charging him with defrauding a Strongsville motel. Police said he stayed at the motel early this month after he married a 20-year-old Brooklyn woman. The young woman and her parents reported Meinhart missing Sunday. Police said the woman also told them that Meinhart's disappearance followed a telephone call from his parents in Chester, Pa., on Friday reporting that he also has a wife living in Upland, Pa.

Despite Successful Rendezvous

Military Role In Space Discounted For Present

WASHINGTON (AP) — The successful rendezvous of the Gemini 6 and 7 space vehicles has pointed the way toward the first step needed if the military is to have a useful role in space.

But neither Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara nor Pentagon experts feel this peaceful scientific demonstration in itself will lead to military activity in space in the near future.

What Wednesday's rendezvous did was to show the ability to "dock" one orbiting space vehicle with another — and thus transfer and supply crews of large, comparatively permanent spaceships without bringing the ships to earth each time.

With no decision made on how the military might utilize space, the Defense Department has received President Johnson's approval to go ahead with the $1.5-billion "Military Orbiting Laboratory" — MOL — aimed at determining what military men could do in space and how this could benefit the national defense.

The Pentagon rules out, basically, any idea of using satellites carrying nuclear weapons to be put down on targets either by making the vehicles re-enter the earth's atmosphere and directing them to targets or by releasing the weapon from the vehicle and aiming it at the target.

There are two reasons for this: U.S. defense experts insist that better accuracy, reliability and warhead load can be obtained with long-range ballistic missiles; and there is agreement between the major nuclear powers not to use satellites as weapons.

There are, however, obvious fields of interest for those contemplating future possibilities for military space activities.

The first is inspection of suspected space vehicles which might be carrying weapons and be either manned or unmanned. Here close approach or even actual entry into the suspected vehicle would be needed. If the vehicle proved hostile, it would be necessary to destroy it, again by a rendezvous close enough so the explosion of the intercepting weapon would do the job.

Then there is surveillance of the earth. That already is being done by unmanned, highly instrumented satellites which scan the earth from polar orbits. Both the United States and the Soviet Union have such systems.

The use of rendezvous could make possible the posting of large, manned "space platforms" in orbit, primarily as a base in the sky for sending out smaller vehicles to conduct inspection or surveillance. Such platforms presumably would be assembled in the sky from parts sent up by cargo-like vehicles.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

A Genuine Actress Comes To TV

ABC's "Long Hot Summer" gets a needed shot of class in an episode scheduled for airing Jan. 13. Twentieth Century-Fox, producer of the series, lured that fine actress, Geraldine Page, from New York to play a more or less familiar eccentric Southern spinster lady.

Hal Humphrey

At least the role is a familiar for Miss Page, who seems to have a special affinity for faded Southern belles as created by Tennessee Williams and the late William Faulkner.

THERE REALLY isn't much Faulkner left in "Long Hot Summer" since it has been ground into weekly TV episodes, but apparently Miss Page liked this particular part well enough to forgive TV its trespasses.

Her most remarkable TV performance was in a "Playhouse 90" adaptation of Faulkner's gripping story of a Mississippi flood, "Old Man," in which Miss Page was a young and very pregnant evacuee who was saved from drowning by an escaped chain gang prisoner (Sterling Hayden).

After a harrowing blood-and-thunder rowboat ride lasting many weeks, the young girl with her new-born baby looked at the convict and asked quite matter of factly, "Which part of the trip did you enjoy most?"

"OLD MAN" originally was aired in November 1958, then repeated in September 1961. Any TV viewer would be hard put to recall any dramatic moments in the medium since then which could top this one.

"I loved the part, but I think they spent so much money on it they may have gone broke, and that's why there is no more 'Playhouse 90,'" says Miss Page, not too seriously.

She did her bit to help CBS defray expenses by buying a film copy of "Old Man" for her own library ("It was so wonderful I didn't want to lose it").

THE ONLY TV Miss Page has done since then was a year later in 1959 when NBC inaugurated a new drama series called "Sunday Showcase," which the network hoped would become another "Playhouse 90." The first one was a Freudian look at a marriage breaking up. It was titled "People Kill People Sometimes" and written by S. Lee Pogostin. Miss Page remembers that she shot Jason Robards Jr. on a staircase in it, which is more than I remembered.

"I did a lot of TV when it was live, but never really got used to it," she says. "I always was acting up a storm at the dress rehearsal, then when it came air time I was tired."

BETWEEN the stage and doing movies of stage successes, such as Tennessee Williams' "Summer and Smoke" and "Sweet Bird of Youth," Miss Page more recently has been occupied producing a family.

She married actor Rip Torn after both were starred in the play, "Sweet Bird of Youth," and they have 6-month-old twin boys and a daughter, 21 months. Like most others who hear it the first time, Miss Page was sure no one would have the real name of Rip Torn, but when she met Rip Torn Sr. and an uncle whose first name also was Rip, she was convinced.

"I even got irritated now when other people don't believe Rip is Rip's real name," says Mrs. Torn.

A WHOLE AUDIENCE of extras, stars from other series and assorted executives dropped around the set at 20th Century-Fox to watch Miss Page in action for the "Long Hot Summer" segment and, according to one observer, most of them were disappointed.

"I think they expected to see a haughty actress, demanding and temperamental, but instead they found an unassuming, hard-working professional who likes to be called 'Gerry' by her friends," reports this observer.

Miss Page currently is under contract to star in a musical version on Broadway of the Arnold Bennett novel and drama, "Buried Alive," but will do TV until it goes into rehearsal — if she finds something she likes.

"I like to come to California," she says, "because it is so bizarre."

Pennsylvania Battle Raging On Fund Cuts

HARRISBURG (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee braced itself today for a last-ditch floor fight to restore some of the $135.5 million it slashed from the Scranton administration's $452 million capital construction budget.

The stage was set for the final showdown Thursday when the House did restore $1.7 million of the cuts, then passed the committee's proposal calling for creation of a special fund to finance small project improvements from current revenues.

But with the Senate claiming it will do no more business on House bills after today, the future of the special fund bill appeared dim.

House Democratic leaders reportedly opposed to some of the cuts affecting Philadelphia also may have another weapon in their efforts to restore funds.

A bill proposed by Rep. Martin P. Mullen, chairman of the appropriations committee which would provide an additional $100,000 each for the House and Senate Appropriations Committees, was recommended to the House Committee on Rules for further study.

Chairman of that committee is majority leader Joshua Eilberg of Philadelphia.

"We want to take another look at the bill, especially in the areas of funds for the Legislative Reference Bureau and the Joint State Government Commission," Eilberg said in explaining the recommendation.

However, some observers close to the scene suggested the possibility the recommendation might be a wedge to force Mullen to restore some of the cuts affecting Philadelphia.

It was also noted that if the Senate goes through with its threat to stop business as of today, opposition in the House to the new concept on small term financing would have been senseless, hence the unanimous endorsement.

The two bills passed by the House are part of the concept developed by Mullen to shift small term projects in the area of $300,000 or less from General State Authority financing to a special capital improvement fund.

The administration's general fund budget earmarked a $10.1 million for such improvements. Mullen's bill would appropriate $4 million for improvements this year and $6 million for similar purposes next year.

GOP Makes New Bid For Boost In State Police Unit

HARRISBURG (AP) — House Republicans are making another attempt to force Democrats to accept the Scranton administration's proposed $315,000 appropriation for a 300-man increase in the Pennsylvania state police.

Rep. William Buchanan, R-Indiana, introduced a discharge resolution Thursday, seeking to release the measure from the Democratic-controlled House Appropriations Committee where it has been bottled up since Aug. 17.

The resolution is given virtually no chance of passing since Democrats hold a 115-93 edge and a two-thirds majority is required to carry such measures.

Even those who might favor the bill usually vote against discharge resolutions because they feel such action undermines the legislature's committee system.

2 Killed, 2 Injured In Crash Of 2 Cars

MARTINS FERRY, Ohio (AP) — Two men were killed and two injured early today when two cars collided just south of Bridgeport on Ohio 7.

Killed were Charles Wilson, 31, of Wheeling, W. Va., and Lawrence Wayne Brown, 22, of Shadyside, Ohio. They were in opposite cars, the Ohio Highway Patrol said.

Thomas Elliott, 31, of Wheeling, in the same car as Wilson, was hospitalized in Wheeling in critical condition. Dale Palmer, 19, of Bellaire, a passenger in Brown's car, was less seriously injured and taken to Bellaire Hospital.

Rep. Frances Bolton To Seek Re-Election

CLEVELAND (AP) — Rep. Frances P. Bolton, R-Ohio, will seek re-election next year. She is the ranking GOP member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

Donald W. Gropp, an aid to Rep. Bolton, said Thursday that she has her petitions out and will file them in January.
